Dear Ms. Kennedy:

Thank you for providing these records. Is this the entirety of the responsive documents? I may have misunderstood from my discussion yesterday for a "rolling" production, however, I thought some documents were produced while others were still being assembled for production. For instance, our PRR (attached for your reference) sought any communications with DHS or ICE (Nos. 5 & 6), and any contracts or agreements for work at the site (No. 10). We are still waiting for those, correct?

Thank you in advance for your attention to this matter.
